Agreement on trans-border terrorism in Jammu and Kashmir

*251. SHRI RAJUBHAI A. PARMAR:

SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether during recent visit of Prime Minister to Russia any understanding or agreement was reached condemning international trans-border terrorism perpetrated by Pakistan in Kashmir and other parts of the country;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the steps taken and being taken in pursuance thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI R. L. BHATIA):

(a) to (c) During Prime Minister's recent visit to Russia no agreement specifically naming Pakistan in relation to its perpetration of trans border terrorism in India was signed. However, the Moscow Declaration on the Protection of the Interests of Pluralistic States as well as the Declaration on the Further Development and Intensification of Cooperation between the Republic of India and the Russian Federation both address the issue of trans-border terrorism in specific terms.

The Moscow Declaration draws special attention to growing threat from various desabilising orces, including terrorism which strike at the unity of pluralistic states. Para-10 of the Moscow Declaration states the conviction of both countries that "..'trans-border terrorism, motivated by vested interests, lead to annihilation of all the positive and constructive elements accumudated by mankind during the many thousands of years of its existence."

The Declaration on the Further Development and Intensification of Cooperation between the Republic of India and
